Grosvenor Museum, Chester

27 Grosvenor Street, Chester, CH1 2DD

Located in England's most picturesque city, the Grosvenor Museum's nationally important collections celebrate Chester's cultural heritage. The Roman galleries explore life in the Roman fortress of Deva and display the largest group of inscribed and sculpted Roman stones from a single site in Britain. The paintings and sculpture in the Art Gallery span half a millennium of art in Cheshire, while the Silver Gallery presents the definitive collection of Chester silver. Nine period rooms illustrate changing fashions in domestic interiors from the 17th century to the 1920s. Further galleries explore Cheshire's diverse natural history and present a range of temporary exhibitions.

Grosvenor Museum, Chester

5 October – 22 March Treasure

Exhibition Gallery One

The museum's collections are full of 'treasures', but why do we value certain things and want to keep them, hoard them, show them off and hand them down? This exhibition explores the nature of treasure and our relationships with it, showcasing some of the most cherished, rare and valuable artefacts from Cheshire's past.

9 November – 15 March Made in Chester: Art by Nicky Thompson

Exhibition Gallery Two

Following the huge success of the Mid-Cheshire Railway Posters, the Grosvenor Museum is delighted to display the new series of 1930s-style art pieces featuring iconic Chester views. Chester-based artist Nicky Thompson, of Lemondrop Creative, evokes the golden age of travel in these original holiday posters designed to entice and inspire the exploration of Britain.

29 Feb – 23 March Say what? Coin Gallery

From the earliest times, humans have needed to communicate. It's been a long journey from simple cave paintings to complex satellites out in space. The Museum's Learning Team have been working with Dorin Park Special School to create a fun exhibiton about communication in all of its diverse forms, such as Makaton and Braille.

4 April – 28 June Vibrant City: Multicultural Chester

Exhibition Gallery One

For nearly two thousand years, Chester has been enriched by people and ideas from Britain, Europe, Asia and beyond. Early Cestrians included Roman soldiers from Ukraine, Vikings from Norway who ran a mint on Lower Bridge Street, and Medieval traders from all over the Mediterranean. This exhibition explores why people came to Chester and the surrounding areas in the past, and tells the stories of the multicultural communities who enhance this vibrant city today.

Wednesday 4 March The hidden history of plants in the Stone Age

Lecture Theatre

1- 2pm. £3, Pay on the door or send cheque/postal order (payable to 'University of Chester') to:

Lunchtime Lectures, Department of History & Archaeology, University of Chester, Parkgate Road, Chester, CH1 4BJ.

Enquiries:

history.archaeology@chester.ac.uk or 01244 512160

With Dr Barry Taylor- We associate the early human past with the use of stone tools but it was plants that provided many of the materials of daily life. From nettle cord fishing lines or birch bark containers to elm bows and lime canoes, early prehistoric communities made use of a wide range of plants, often using certain species for specific tasks. Plants were also important symbolically, and played an important role in ritual practices. In this lecture we will explore the lost world of plants as they were understood by the communities living in Britain shortly after the end of the last Ice Age, as well as having the opportunity to carry out some plant-based crafts.

Wednesday 11 March Forgotten in Britain? Remembering the German Dead of the two World Wars

Lecture Theatre

2pm. £3, Pay on the door or send cheque/postal order (payable to 'University of Chester') to:

Lunchtime Lectures, Department of History & Archaeology, University of Chester, Parkgate Road, Chester, CH1 4BJ.

Enquiries:

history.archaeology@chester.ac.uk or 01244 512160

With Professor Tim Grady- Almost 7,000 Germans – military and civilians – were laid to rest in Britain during the two World Wars. The British initially buried these dead in cemeteries scattered throughout the country, including in Chester. However, in the 1960s, the vast majority of bodies were reinterred in a new German cemetery in Staffordshire. This talks explores the changing place of the German war dead, tracing how their presence gradually faded from local memory.

Wednesday 18 March Change in a Historic Landscape: The Lost Buildings of Port Sunlight

Lecture Theatre

1- 2pm. £3, Pay on the door or send cheque/postal order (payable to 'University of Chester') to: Lunchtime Lectures, Department of History & Archaeology, University of Chester, Parkgate Road, Chester, CH1 4BJ.

Enquiries: history.archaeology@chester.ac.uk or 01244 512160

With Dr Rebecca Andrew- Founded in the 19th century by William Hesketh Lever, to house 'Sunlight Soap' factory workers, Port Sunlight is a thriving tourist destination, containing 900 Grade II listed buildings. The village's identity focuses on its supposedly unchanging nature, despite considerable development throughout its relatively short history. This talk concentrates on demolished, replaced or re-purposed 'lost' buildings over the past 125 years.

Challenging common representations of Port Sunlight, it questions the significance for tourists and residents alike.

Weaver Hall Museum & Workhouse

162 London Road, Northwich, CW9 8AB

Weaver Hall Museum and Workhouse is full of displays and tales of the history and industry of West Cheshire. The stories are told through films, reconstructions, models and vivid displays of intriguing artefacts, which relate to local industry, market towns, transport, archaeology, and the building's former history.

Housed within the old Northwich Union Workhouse, a special exhibition in the former workhouse schoolroom explores life for the paupers. Our younger visitors can dress up as workhouse inmates, learn all about the 3 Rs and challenge themselves with our workhouse quiz. Visitors can also find out about workhouse food, discover some of the people who lived in the workhouse, and visit the recreated Master's sitting room.

A regularly changing exhibition programme features local history subjects, artist groups, and fascinating items from our wider museum collections.

Lion Salt Works, Northwich

Ollershaw Lane, Marston, Northwich, Cheshire, CW9 6ES

The Lion Salt Works is a restored historic open-pan salt making site in the village of Marston, beside the Trent and Mersey Canal and close to the remarkable Anderton Boat Lift. This £10 million project opened in 2015 and was voted the UK's Best Heritage project in the 2016 National Lottery Awards. It offers a fascinating journey through the life of the country's last open-pan salt works.

You can explore the site and its restored buildings to discover how the Salt Works operated and the impact of salt on mid-Cheshire's people, economy and landscape. Your visit will also set the scene for a wider exploration of the footpaths, waterways and attractions of the adjacent Northwich Woodlands and the Weaver Valley.

Exhibitions

12 October – 16 February

The Intrigue of Cheese: Cheshire Salt and the Dairy Industry

Voluntary Researcher, Tom Holmes, has curated this fascinating exhibition and students from Reaseheath College's cheese-making department have produced storyboards showing the modern processes which are displayed alongside objects from the museum stores.

22nd February – 1 June

Brine, steam and rust: industrial landscapes of Northwich

An exhibition of paintings by Richard Edmunds, reflecting the powerful presence of Cheshire's Industrial Age. Through a series of artworks this exhibition documents the huge towers, mounted platforms and steam-billowing chimneys that were synonymous with Northwich's industrial landscape. Many of the works feature sites that are now left abandoned, slowly deteriorating and rusting away to become overtaken and reclaimed by nature.

Saturday 14 March Ogg 'n' Ugg and the World's First Dogg by Theatre Fidera Fidera

10.30am for 11am-12noon. Adult £6.50, under-17 £4.50, family tickets available: book at Lion Salt Works 01606 275066 or visit www.ticketsource.co.uk/cheshire\_ruraltouringarts.

A long, long time ago there were no dogs – there were wolves, but we didn't like them and they didn't like us. But then along came Yorkshire hunter-gatherers Ogg 'n' Ugg who palled up with the wolves and invented our best friend, the dog. "Vastly entertaining for both adults and children this caveman story is heartfelt and engaging" New Perspective.

Friday 27 March Yours sincerely by Quick Duck Theatre

6.45am for 7.30pm-8.30pm. Adult £10, under-17 £6.50, family tickets available: book at Lion Salt Works 01606 275066 or visit www.ticketsource.co.uk/cheshireruraltouringarts.

Will Jackson has accidentally stolen 300 second class stamps from the post office. But he's making them count. He's going to write letters. From reconnecting with old friends and ex-boyfriends to run-ins with the marketing department at John Lewis, stamp collecting has never looked so sexy...

Based on real life correspondences; storytelling and lipsync cabaret collide in this queer coming-of-age comedy about the complications of 21st-century communication; hot off the heels of its incredibly successful Edinburgh fringe run. "An escalating comedy that takes you on a wild ride" ★ ★ ★ ★ The Skinny

The SALT WORKS Sessions Saturday 22 February 2020

The Jellyman's Daughter

Doors open 7.15 pm

Tickets £11.00 from :-

<http://www.danarts.org/events/the-jellymans-daughter/> or email lswsessions@gmail.com .

Scottish duo The Jellyman's Daughter lands squarely in the middle of an intriguing crossroads between bluegrass, post-rock, folk and soul. Mixing their unique vocal harmonies with wild and visceral cello, driving guitar and sweet mandolin, Emily and Graham write their songs together with a focus on doing something new.

After touring extensively across the UK, Europe, USA, Canada and Australia in 2018/19, we're very lucky to be able to welcome Emily & Graham to The Salt Works Sessions. Be prepared to be entranced by their music and gorgeous singing ... completely captivating and spine-tingling.

"Song-writing of the highest order"

"Exquisite vocals and harmonies, and dynamic and expressive cello playing"

Saturday 25 April Stone Carving Workshop

10am-4pm. £55 (including materials and equipment): book at www.pamgordonartist.co.uk/book-online.

This one-day course is an exploration into techniques of relief carving with limestone. You will be introduced to basic stone carving techniques, learn how to use appropriate tools, map out your design, as well as carving and smoothing techniques.

The SALT WORKS Sessions
Saturday 16 May 2020
EDGELARKS

We are thrilled to announce the return of the brilliant EDGELARKS in May 2020. Phil & Hannah's gig in 2017 inspired The Salt Works Sessions music programme, and we are eternally grateful to them for this... A class act built on Phillip Henry's much extolled musicianship, Hannah Martin's highly original song-writing and her deep, soulful voice. The Devon duo have been making 'world music from the West Country' since 2010 through 5 acclaimed studio albums, combining exquisite folk with influences as diverse as the blues and Indian classical slide guitar. The BBC Folk Award winners take their strong roots sound, mixing original song-writing with stomping beatbox harmonica, soaring fiddle and vocal harmonies.

A formidable live show, making much more noise than only two people should be able to, taking audiences on a story telling journey around a new musical landscape.

"One of the best duos on the planet"
"Really sophisticated, quite brilliant"
